

Trans-Siberia & Mongolia Expedition V2

“Bridging Europe & Asia on Trans-Siberia Railway Through Russia & Mongolia” (From Moscow)

This 16D13N / 14D13N trip will lead us to explore, discover, and blaze a trail along the less-traveled route by train, following the iconic Trans-Siberian Railroad through two countries: Russia and Mongolia. Commencing in Moscow, Russia's capital, the expedition spans over 7,500 km, concluding in Ulaanbaatar, the capital of Mongolia. Along this extraordinary route, our stops include various cities and unique destinations such as Ulaanbaatar, Terelj National Park, Irkutsk, Lake Baikal, Novosibirsk, Yekaterinburg, and Kazan. Additionally, we'll seize the opportunity to immerse ourselves in the distinctive lifestyle and culture of nomadic people in the Gobi Desert. Undoubtedly, this guarantees an essential, once-in-a-lifetime expedition that will create enduring memories.
